With this team, you are going to feel a passion for teaching and nurturing students.

We know you need a break, but don't forget to enjoy a good book, a magazine or newspaper article about any topic of interest. It's important to keep your mind active and not to lose your wonderful skills over the summer. As a summer assignment, you should do the SUMMER READING PACKET and turn it in during the first two weeks of classes. This is going to be your first grade.

We sincerely hope and wholeheartedly wish to see you all back here in August. Our doors are open.

Warm greetings,
